Gallery Nucleus Presents

Drew Struzan: An Artist's Vision

February 13, 2009 - March 02, 2009

Opening Reception: Friday February 13, 2009 (7 pm – 11 pm)

Admission is free. Refreshments and music provided.

Drew Struzan is one of the most famous and collected artists in the world, a true master in the field of cinema art, with private collections owned by George Lucas, Steven Spielberg, former Disney Chairman Michael Eisner and several other notable collectors.

With over thirty years experience and more than 150 movie campaigns under his belt, his noteworthy credits include Indiana Jones, Back to the Future, Harry Potter, the Star Wars trilogy and Star Wars: The Phantom Menace. He's painted memorable posters for Blade Runner, E.T. The Extra-Terrestrial, Hook, Cutthroat Island, Muppet Caper, Masters of the Universe and dozens more.

After graduating with honors from the prestigious Art Center College of Design, Struzan first gained his reputation in the 70's illustrating album covers such as Alice Cooper's "Welcome to my Nightmare," voted one of the top 100 album covers of all time by Rolling Stone Magazine. In the coming years, Struzan developed his now-famous style of One-Sheet poster art, which includes such memorable works as Return of the Jedi and the international campaign for Raiders of the Lost Ark. In 1982, he embarked on a solo career that has earned him continuing accolades. Struzan's collectable work is held in high esteem having been exhibited at the Norman Rockwell Museum alongside other such American art masters as Dean Cornwell, Maxfield Parrish, and J.C. Leyendecker.

Select famous works from Drew Struzan's career will be featured in this exhibit as well as contemporary personal works and high quality reproductions. The artist himself will be in attendance during the opening reception on Friday, February 13, 2009. This is a rare opportunity to view these culturally iconic works firsthand. The exhibit runs through March 2 and admission is free. For more details about this event, please feel free to contact us.

Since October of 2004, Nucleus has strived to be a welcoming gathering place for the art loving community by offering quality art, art-related goods, and rarities. Focusing primarily on gallery exhibits, we have also had benefit auctions, product signings, music events, and artist lectures.

After three and a half years, we moved one block east to a much larger and more dynamic space. Still in the heart of quaint downtown Alhambra, we re-opened in March of 2008 with over 2000 square feet of open gallery space, 1000 square feet of shop/boutique, and over 3000 square feet of studio/production space.

Having exhibited both local artists and artists from abroad, and catering to an international customer base, we offer an extensive collection of original contemporary, illustrated, graphic, commercial, and narrative art. (All of which are carefully cataloged online in our website.)

Always open to the public, we welcome art collectors and the general public alike to visit us seven days a week.
